

Overview of Pediatric Telepsychiatry

Child and adolescent psychiatrists:

serve youth with mental, emotional, and behavioral difficulties follow patients over time provide psychiatric evaluation & medication management recommend treatment options to improve symptoms and quality of life collaborate with local providers to facilitate labwork and prescription of certain controlled medications use secure videoconferencing at clinics, schools, and other child-serving sites outside the health system increase capacity through training child psychiatry fellows in telehealth

DEVELOPED BY

Telehealth ROCKS

Rural Outreach for the Children of Kansas